SPRING LAUNCHING

The thing about boats is that they shrink after launching. Tom Brownell prepares to slide the Isis III into the water on Saturday at Mattapoisett Wharf. This 38 foot version of the Isis is the latest in a line that started out as a Sunfish. The Sunfish was the Kysleika family's training boat and they learned to sail with her; then, in succession, came the 32 footer, the 36 footer and now the present 38 footer. This comfort-

Selectmen's Meeting

April 24, 1984 - by Virginia Arral

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING: MONDAY, MAY 7th, AT 7:30 P.M.

Finance Committee Chairman Michael O'Brien informed Selectmen Tuesday that a $30,000 increase in estimated receipts will allow his committee to recommend at the May 7th annual town meeting an additional sum be allocated for the Mattapoisett School Committee.

The School Committee met with the Selectmen and Finance Committee and agreed that $26,000 would cover a reasonable cost of living increase for the teachers and for the Special Needs Account which has increased 34 percent in the past year.

Town Accountant Barbara Dakin explained the additional funds will be transferred from available funds originally allocated for litigation. She noted if the funds are needed later they can be raised at that School Committee member Dorothea Pierce commented that in the past four years her committee has returned over $84,000 in unspent funds back to the town. "We have stripped every penny this year. We can hold our heads high now that we are in need of help."

Mrs. Pierce also noted there is about $23,000 in the Barstow Fund that can be used in an emergency for educational purposes. Selectman Frank Suzan expressed the opinion these funds should not be used until they are really needed. The school committee members agreed.

Center School Principal Mrs. Katherine Kozicki commented, "It's a pleasure to see such harmony among the Board of Selectmen and how well you work together."

SEMASS PROJECTED COSTS

An overview as to the SEMASS projected costs to the town was given to Selectmen by the Board of Health.

Spokesman Daniel C. Lee said that in 1987 when the contract would take effect, if it is signed, the projected SEMASS cost of $116,613.60 would compare to $97,000 for the traditional rubbish disposal method ($19,613 more with SEMASS). However, noted Lee, the 1992 projected SEMASS cost would be $96,033.60 ($16,616.40 less than the present traditional method cost of $112,650).

Lee continued saying, "Five years later (1997) utilization of SEMASS method is projected at a cost of $66,374.40 ($61,675.60 less than the $128,050 estimated cost for the traditional method). The decrease in SEMASS's cost is contigent on the electric power provided by the plant being purchased by Com Electric."

Lee added he would like to have the loaded truck weighed before the contract is signed. "If we go over the estimated weight it will be all right. However, if it is under a specified amount, we may get a penalty because SEMASS needs the trash."

In other business Selectmen:

APPOINTED Al Sears as Sealer of Weights and Measures. The Board felt now that Sears is retired he will have the time to devote to the position. The work involves testing scales throughout the town at various times during the year.

The only other application considered was that of Fay Silveira. The Board noted she is employed by the A & P which would mean someone else would have to test the store's scales or it could be considered a conflict of interest.

No applications were received for the po-

Chairman John DeCosta noted Barry Denham, Marshall Pryce and Charles Duponte all declined because of the cost of insurance necessary to cover the spraying application. The Board will check into the possibility of having the town pick up the policy cost if one of those having expertise in the spraying business would reconsider the superintendency position.

Executive Secretary Carol Adams informed Selectmen they should consider a new appointment in the slot of alternate on the Board of Appeals. She noted the present person Selectman James F. Huntoon recommended Elizabeth Kunz, an attorney, as a well-qualified person who would be an asset to the appeals board. Selectmen will consider his recommendation and urged Huntoon to contact the attorney.

The board agreed to continue the Cable TV Committee and will call a meeting among the committee, Eric Shultz of the American Cable Company and the Selectmen.

Chairman DeCosta will continue to serve on the Veterans' Board Executive Committee in conjunction with a Selectman to be appointed from Rochester. Harry Brown of Rochester will continue to serve as member-at-large on the committee.

Other routine department appointments were signed and will become effective May 1.

MET WITH MEMBERS of the Mattapoisett School Committee and heard that Maureen Best is the new chairman. She will also be the committee's representative on the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee. The other two members are Dorothea Pierce and Ellen Driscoll.

In a joint vote the Selectmen and School Committee reappointed William C. Keavy as the town's representative to the Old Colony Vocational-Technical School Committee.

GARDEN GROUP

The Garden Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Jenks, 3 Hilton Avenue, Holly Woods, Monday, May 7th, at 9:30 a.m.

Plans will be madefor plantings at the Post Office, Triangle and Town Hall. Interested members are invited to attend and bring their requests for next year's programs. Please call Evelyn Jenks at 758-9565 if you plan to attend.

The Garden Group will travel to Harvard University's Arnold Arboretum in Jamaica Plan for its May meeting on Tuesday, May 22nd.

Arrangements have been finalized for a guided two-hour walk through the lovely, late-spring plantings at the height of lilac season, starting at 10:30 a.m. Following the tour participants may enjoy displays, the gift shop, printed information and specimen sales. The outing will end with luncheon at the Arboretum House Restaurant.

Because the guided tour has a flat rate, the cost per person will depend on the number of participants, probably not exceeding three dollars each. This sum does not include luncheon or transportation. Car pooling will be arranged after sign-up is completed. The deadline is Tuesday, May 15th.

Anyone interested in joining the group for this delightful springtime outing may call Mary Callan (758-6024). We will meet at St. Anthony's parking lot no later than 8:45 a.m. on May 22nd.

Paper Weekend

This weekend, May 5th and 6th, the paper van will be parked at the town parking lot off Depot Street, Mattapoisett to receive all your waste paper goods. Be sure papers are tied and bundled properly. This community project is sponsored by the Mattapoisett Republican Town Committee.

gional Spelling Bee held April 18th in New Bedford.

Chris, 14, is an eighth grade student at Old Rochester Regional Junior High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brisson of Rochester. He is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Blanchette of Pinehurst Avenue, Mattapoisett; all are understandably proud of Chris.

As Chris competed against 50 other contestants, it came down to two opponents this year who also faced each other in last year's contest. That opponent was Leon Hsu of Dartmouth.

After having won the regional contest last year, Chris went to Washington, D.C. to compete in the Scripps-Howard National Spelling Bee. Losing the national contest last year only urged him on this year to try again.

Chris is the only regional winner from Old Rochester Regional and the only two-time winner from this area. He has hopes of being the first winner from ORR at the national level. The regional contest held at the New Bedford High School was sponsored by The Standard-Times. Chris won a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica. He and his parents will be sent later this year on an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C. as the newspaper's representatives.

An honor roll student in the accelerated group at the Junior High, Chris said, "I am happy for myself but I am most happy for my school. I really like my school and sorry that our family will be moving away."

Chris explained the spelling bee started in the classroom, continued with a school contest, with the winner going to the regional spelling bee and competing with students from other area schools.

In explaining how he was able to master so many words, Chris said, "I started working on a study book of easy words, then a book of intermediate words and concluding with a list of 'final round words'. Some words I memorized because I didn't know what they meant. We are allowed to ask for a definition, what language the word originates from and how it is used in a sentence."

Chris and his final opponent, Hsu, were interviewed on radio station WBSM's open line program last week. He said he was as nervous speaking on radio as he was on the stage of the Bronspiegel Auditorium when he reached the final round and correctly spelled "traulism" after Hsu spelled it incorrectly. He went on to spell "vaward" and became the regional champion.

Marion Grange

The regular meeting of Marion Grange #339 was held on April 19th with Island District Pomona Deputy Andrew Lafferty and recently chosen Island District Princess Audra Ouellette as special guests.

Deputy Lafferty presented the award for Public Service to Ollie Mae Gifford, Acushnet Grange #285. This award is given by the National Grange to a person who does volunteer work in the community.

Ollie Mae is a volunteer at Parkwood Hospital, Salvation Army, Call for Action, Inter-Church Council, Zeiterion Theatre, DAR work at the Veterans' Hospital, and always ready to put on a program for the Grange.

She learned sign language and taught some elderly people how to sign so that they could take part in her program.

Miss Lisa Seaman of Mattapoisett, an interpreter in the READ program at Lakeville Hospital, and a teacher of sign language at several classes in the evening, presented a very interesting program about the deaf and their problems.

Those of us who can hear little realize how difficult every day life can be for those who cannot hear.

Jim Dugan of Acushnet, a deaf young man, took part in the program and helped us to understand just what a person like Lisa can do to make life easier for the deaf.

Guests were from Acushnet, East Freetown, New Bedford and Rochester Granges.

Sailboard Launching Ramp

FEDERAL PERMIT SOUGHT FOR
SIPPICAN HARBOR ACCESS RAMP

The Town of Marion is seeking permission from the New England Division, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, to construct an access ramp in Sippican Harbor at Marion for launching sailboards and windsurfers. The ramp would be constructed at the existing seawall at the outer edge of the harbor and would require the placement of about 48 cubic yards of clean fill and trap rock.

The application for the federal permit was filed with the Engineers in compliance with Section 10 of the River and Harbor Act of 1899 which provides for federal regulation

Dinner to Benefit F.H.S.

The Board of Directors of the Fairhaven High School Alumni Association wishes to announce that a Fund-Raiser Restoration Dinner will be held June 2nd at the High School.

Unpredictable costs involved with the restoration of the Mabel Hoyle Knipe Auditorium have necessitated that funds be raised as soon as possible.

The gala affair, scheduled for Rogers Weekend, will begin with a Reception at 6:00 p.m. followed by a brief program to view the restored Auditorium and climaxing with a superb dinner created by the Huttlestone House at 7:30 p.m. Ticket donations, fifty dollars per person, are tax deductible

Honors for O.R.R. Students

ORR SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

Carmen Gracia, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gracia of Mattapoisett, has been named the recipient of two national scholarships. Ms. Gracia has been notified by the National Cash Register Corporation that she has been awarded an NCR Centennial Scholarship. This award is renewed yearly for four years. In addition, Ms. Gracia will receive an NCR Personal Computer. Approximately 100 scholarships were awarded nationally this year by NCR.

In addition, Ms. Gracia has been awarded a scholarship by the Scholarship Board of the National Association of Secondary School Principals. The NASSP awards 250 scholarships each year on a nationwide basis. Participants in this scholarship competition must be members of National Honor Society and recommended by their high school.

Selection of award recipients for both scholarships was based solely on academic merit, personal qualities and recommendations.

Ms. Gracia was accepted at Harvard-Radcliffe on the Early Action Plan and plans to pursue a career in medicine. As a junior, Ms. Gracia received the Harvard Book Award for academic excellence.

During high school, Ms. Gracia has served as class president, vice president of the National Honor Society, co-captain of the Math Team, president of the Drama Club, and been a member of the Warrant Committee. Ms. Gracia was also a delegate to Girls' State in 1983 and named to the All-Star Eastern Math League in grades ten and eleven. As a sophomore, she attended Project Excel at Southeastern Massachusetts University, attended Project Contemporary Competitiveness at Bridgewater in 1981 and a summer engineering symposium at Northwestern University in 1982.

ORR STUDENT ACCEPTED IN
MASS. ADVANCED STUDIES PROGRAM

Christina Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hoyt of Mattapoisett, has been accepted in the Mass. Advanced Studies Program to be held at Milton Academy this summer. Ms. Hoyt will participate in the French program which includes the study of the culture, art, politics and literature of France. The courses will be taught in French. She will also study poetry writing as a supplementary course.

Ms. Hoyt is a junior at Old Rochester Regional High School. Her extracurricular activities include volleyball, track, student government and the science newsletter. This year she also attends Project Excel at Southeastern Massachusetts University.

MASP is open to juniors in all Massachusetts high schools who are nominated by their schools. Nominated students must show strong academic achievement and potential. Applications are read by review committees across the state. Final selections are based on "overall academic strength, ability in the subject area chosen, motivation and capacity for intensive self-directed learning". In addition, MASP seeks students on whom the program will have a significant impact. Approximately 500 students applied for admission and 240 were accepted. According to the MASP, admission is highly selective.

The program provides six weeks of college level work in a boarding school environment. In addition, students receive college and career guidance. Students also have a full athletic program available and field trips to museums, plays and historical sights. The program will allow Ms. Hoyt to pursue college level work in an intense academic setting.

Mattapoisett Republican Committee

The Mattapoisett Town Republican Committee met on Saturday, April 21st, in the Town Hall. Over twenty people were in attendance as Ken Pease was elected Chairman, John Pagenkopf, Vice Chairman; Mary Betts, Secretary; and Laura Cook, Treasurer. Republican Congressional candidates Lew Crampton and Ric Barros spoke briefly. Lew Crampton spoke of his experience running for State Treasurer in 1978 and how his knowledge from working for the EPA in Washington could benefit this district. Ric Barrows, former head of the New England College Republicans, spoke of his experience in the Marines and law school and overwhelming need to remove the incumbent.

presented with two awards to acknowledge her contributions in the field of education. She was given the Distinguished Professional Service Award in recognition of forty years or more of dedicated service in the teaching profession. Mrs. Tuttle was also awarded the Retirement Certificate which is given to any teacher retiring after twenty-five years of teaching, ten of which must have been as a member of Plymouth County.

Having taught all grade levels, Mrs. Tuttle is presently a third grade teacher and has been Head Teacher at Center School for the last six years. The faculty, staff, and students of Center School, past and joyed by many - at the very least, by students, by parents, by fellow teachers and by administrators. The positive effect one good teacher can have is enormous and multiplies every year he/she continues to teach. Yet, so often this generous contribution and dedication is overlooked or taken for granted.

This is not so, however, here in Mattapoisett for we are proud to announce that we have one such teacher who, unfortunately for us, will be retiring at the end of this year after lovingly giving forty years of service to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts - thirty-six of those years teaching Mattapoisett children.

On the 9th of April at the Plymouth County Educators' Association Banquet, held at Ridder Country Club in Whitman, Rheta Tuttle was

ORR Math Team

The ORR Math Team ranks in the top third of the 404 schools in the United States and Canada through five meets in the Atlantic-Pacific Mathematics League. In New England, ORR ranks fourth leading such schools as: Medford, Brookline, Foxboro, Central Catholic, Cambridge Rindge and Latin and Braintree.

Top scorers for ORR were Carmen Gracia, Jeff Humphrey, Luz Jackivicz and Jeff Starecheski.

MATHEMATICS LEAGUE PLAYOFFS

The ORR Math Team dominated the Southeastern Massachusetts Conference Mathematics League Playoffs at Falmouth with a socre of 147. Leading scorers for ORR were Carmen Gracia, 18 (a perfect score), Jeff Humphrey and David Tremblay. The top seven schools in the league qualified for the playoffs and the results were as follows: ORR, 147; Dartmouth, 111; Falmouth, 108; Bishop Feehan, 100; Dennis Yarmouth, 94; Attleboro, 90; Nauset, 81.

ORR has now qualified for the State Meet (for the fifth consecutive year), held at Winchester High School on April 27th, and for the New England Meet (for the third consecutive year) to be held at Canton High School on May 11th. This was the third consecutive year that ORR has captured top honors in the SMC.

ORR and the SMC would like to thank the Sippican Corporation of Marion and, in particular, Mr. Richard Arthur and Mr. Andrew Mendes for their cooperation and generosity over the past two years toward the Math Team and League. This year Sippican is donating a large Revere bowl to the League Champions (ORR) and smaller Revere bowls to each of the team members. According to Mr. Cameron, team advisor, "the Sippican Corporation has gone out of their way to help the Math Team and League whenever possible. They have allowed us to use their vans for transportation to the playoffs, the State and New England Meets and this year they're providing trophies for the League Champions. Support like this from the community in a worthwhile academic pursuit is sorely needed in these days of tight school budgets, and I for one am truly grateful for their continued support and encouragement."

Problem Solvers

The ORRJHS Problem Solving Group (8th grade Algebra I students) completed its competition in the Continental Mathematics League for the 1983-1984 season. The team from ORR ranked 15th among the 45 junior high schools competing in New England and finished in the top one third of the 347 schools nationally. Top scorers for ORRJHS were Scott Middleton, Lisa Bozoyan and Susan Reid.

Mr. Cameron, Algebra I teacher at the junior high school, stated that "this was an excellent performance for the first year of competition. The types of questions were completely unknown to us, but next year we should improve, now that we know what to expect. I certainly hope that some of these students continue with their interest in problem solving at the high school. We will be looking for some new members for the high school Math Team."

Junior High Honor Roll

Mr. Robert C. Gardner, Principal of Old Rochester Regional Junior High School, is pleased to announce the names of the students who made the Third Quarter Honor Roll (1983-1984).

ception will take place at the Wamsutta Club at 421 County Street.

The 1984 tour consists of 13 architecturally and historically significant homes in the County Street Historic District. The tour area is bounded on the north by Morgan Street, on the south by Anthony Street, on the east by County Street, and on the west by Moreland Terrace. Homes open to the public range in ages from the 1821 James Arnold Mansion (the Wamsutta Club) to the 1908 Arthur Delano house. Architectural styles include Federal, Georgian Revival, Eastlake Gothic, Italianate and the rare Jacobean Revival.

The home of Sheriff and Mrs. David Nelson, located at 108 Court Street, will be of special interest. The main section of the Federal building was constructed in 1828 and officially opened as New Bedford's jail on October 5, 1829. The jail contained 32 solitary cells and special rooms for debtors since in the early nineteenth century imprisonment for debt was still common.

Later the now familiar Bristol County House of Correction was constructed and the 1828 jail became a home for the sheriff. In 1858 a brick addition was built on the west side of the house and in the late 1880's a Richardsonian Romanesque porch was constructed in front on the main entrance. The Court Street house is a fine example of Federal architecture strongly resembling the more well-known Benjamin Rodman house at 50 North Second Street.

The tour also includes a fine Georgian Revival home located at 29 Arnold Place. The house was constructed in 1897 for Harry M. Peirce, a young mill executive. In 1908 the house became one of New Bedford's finest private schools, the Mosher School, run by area teacher Charles Edward Everett Mosher.

Also on this year's tour is the fully restored Swain School of Design Melville Library at 100 Madison Street which was previously on the 1983 tour before rehabilitation began. The 1855 Italianate house was a wedding present from Captain Henry Taber for his young daughter, Abby, and was designed by local architect, Solomon K. Easton of Mattapoisett. After the premature death of John Hunt, Abby returned to her father's home on Orchard Street and 100 Madison Street was rented to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hoadley. Katherine Melville Hoadley was

Spring Concert

AT ROTCH-JONES-DUFF HOUSE

The first in a series of six spring and summer concerts to be presented at the Rotch-Jones-Duff House and Garden Museum, 396 County Street, New Bedford, will be held Sunday, May 6th, at 3:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Fairhaven Savings Bank, the concerts will provide a special opportunity to enjoy varied musical interludes in the splendid setting of the Museum's Greek Revival Architecture and beautifully restored formal gardens.

Guest artist for the first concert is noted harpsichordist John Gerard Koster. Mr. Koster is a 1971 (cum laude in music) graduate of Harvard College, and is also a maker of harpsichords and serves as restorer of many fine rare instruments in the Boston Museum

WHALE Auction

THE EXOTIC EIGHTH ANNUAL

For the first two years it was simply the "Great WHALE Auction", then it grew to become the "Amazing WHALE Auction", then the "Forthcoming Fourth". In 1981 it was "On Stage at the State", and then came the "Soaring Sixth" and the "Salty Seventh". This year it is the "Exotic Eighth WHALE Auction". It is as dependable as the coming of spring and, more than any other single fund-raising event, is essential to WHALE, the Waterfront Historic Area League. WHALE is a non-profit preservation organization responsible for much of the restoration in New Bedford's waterfront historic district as well as the city's Zeiterion Theatre, and the Rotch-Jones-Duff House and Garden Museum. The annual auction raises an average $20,000 to benefit the organization's operating budget and its various projects.

Nearly sixty hard working volunteers begin meeting in January each year to organize the event. Many artisans and local businesses also contribute their talent and services to help make the auction a success. Tom Corey of Corey and Company, a graphic design firm in Boston, has provided the design for the past six auction posters and Reynolds-DeWalt has donated the printing. Last year, the poster for WHALE's "Salty Seventh" auction was accepted for exhibition by the Lahti Art Museum in Finland for their Fifth Poster Biennale. Since the exhibit, the Jerusalem Museum in Israel and a design school in Frankfort, Germany, among a few, have requested the poster for their collections. The series of posters is quite a collectors' item and each one contributes to the annual fund-raiser.

Seating is by reservation only. The ticket price of $10.00 will be used to defray operating expenses. Call the Theatre for further information or reservations.

This year, the Exotic Eighth WHALE Auction will begin at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 5th, at the Zeiterion Theatre, 684 Purchase Street, New Bedford. Tom and Bill Bourne, from Hyannisport, will serve as auctioneers. There will be a champagne preview Friday, May 4th, from 5 to 7 p.m. Three dollars will be charged at the door. For the first time, this year's preview will feature a raffle of three spectacular prizes: a windjammer barefoot cruise for two aboard a tall ship to an island in the sunny Caribbean; 2 season tickets to the Zeiterion Theatre with ten different shows to choose from; and a Rocky Mountain High Ski Vacation, seven days at a ski lodge condominium in Crested Butte, Colorado, a 19th century Victorian mining town. Raffle tickets will be available at the preview or through the WHALE office. Tickets sell for $10.00 a ticket

So far this year's auction boasts a wide variety of items including leaded stained glass windows from an old church, an historic church pew, an O'Day Swift seven foot sail boat, a canoe, a pair of corinthian columns and a wood burning stove. For the collector there will be Pairpoint vases; Heisey champagne glasses and ice cream dishes; as well as ironstoneware marked J & G Meakin. The list goes on, adding up to approximately 300 items, promising a day filled with thrilling choices and heated bidding. A light lunch and snacks will be available throughout the day. For further details contact Judy Mulford, auction chairman, at WHALE, 997-1776.

N.B. Whaling Museum

Historian David B. Quinn will present a program on "The Gosnold Voyage of 1602 in Perspective" on Wednesday, May 9th, at 8 p.m. at the Whaling Museum, 18 Johnny Cake Hill, New Bedford.

In his most recent book, The English New England Voyages, 1602-1608, he reproduces with expert commentary the surviving accounts of the Gosnold venture. The general outlines of Bartholomew Gosnold's voyage of 1602 may be familiar to many, but the reasons for it and the place it occupies in the larger history of English exploration are less well-known.

proudly announces an upcoming mini-course entitled Identification of Spring Wildflowers. This two classroom and three field session mini-course will cover the anatomy, physiology, and ecology of flowering plants in southeastern Massachusetts. The two-evening sessions, May 23 and May 30, will be instructed by Dr. James Sears of Southeastern Massachusetts University. The Saturday field sessions, May 26, June 2 and June 9, will be instructed by Mildred House who teaches field ecology and natural history at Roger Williams College. Advanced registration for this course is requested. For additional information call the Lloyd Center at 990-0505.

The diversity of wildflowers is best observed during the Spring season. This time of the year brings forth great beauty throughout our region. This mini-course will instruct both the novice and experienced naturalist in the distribution and relationships between wildflowers in their environment.

The two evening class sessions will be held at the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies. Dr. Sears will address the evolution of flowering plants, their physiology and anatomy through classroom discussions, lecture, and observing plant specimens. These sessions will prepare course participants for field study with Mrs. House.

Mrs. House is presently completing a book on the wildflowers of New England with special attention to field observation based on habitat. Her extensive experience in natural history has enabled her to locate many very rare and some not so rare beautiful Spring wildflowers. The three Saturday field sessions will study the area of forest and wooded swamps near the Lloyd Center, dune and rocky coastline areas and upland zones near the coast.

Registration for this course is $35. including all costs of instruction and supplies. Registration by phone may be made by calling the Lloyd Center Tuesday through Sunday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

HYDE PARK HIGH SCHOOL GOSPEL CHOIR & JAZZ ENSEMBLE TO PERFORM AT SMU

The Hyde Park High School Gospel Choir and Jazz Ensemble will perform at Southeastern Massachusetts University on May 4th as part of SMU's 5th annual Jazz Festival. The free concert is set for 11 a.m. in Room 104 in the College of Visual and Performing Arts (Group VI) Building.

The Choir, founded by Alphonso Gatling and students two years ago, has performed in churches, at local banks, and at other places during the Christmas holidays.

The Jazz Ensemble originated through the efforts of the New England Conservatory and is supported by a cultural resource grant from the Massachusetts Council of the Arts and Humanities and a grant from the Bank of Boston. Director Lew Traver has worked with the ensemble since its development two years ago. The ensemble and choir will perform standard works and original compositions.

This is the group's first performance outside of the greater Boston area.

Ornithology Lecture

A distinguished hobby-ornithologist of national repute, Erma J. Fisk of Orleans will be introduced to local nature-lovers and/or birders at a free public lecture at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 9th, at Southworth Library, South Dartmouth.

Author of numerous published scientific articles relative to her vast experience in field work with birds, notably terns along the length of the Atlantic Coast, Mrs. Fisk's latest book is titled THE PEACOCKS OF BABOWUIVARI and is a personal account of her incredible experiences during 5 months spent living in and working out of a 16 x 20-foot cabin in an isolated mountain valley in the Baboquivari Range of southest Arizona. Her work there was the documentation of native wildlife, especially the avian fauna (but not peacocks in particular) for The Nature Conservancy, which has recently acquired that remote preserve.

The inclusion of peacocks in the title is an indirect reflection of the delightful unconventionality of this unpredictable, warm and humorous elderly widow, whose closest companions during that lonely winter were these demonstrative domestics whose company she encouraged by feeding them.

A type of perceptive and philosophical journal, her book is described by O.S. Pettingill, Jr., the nation's top ornithologist, as "lively, replete with high spirits, good humor and insights on natural history. What she sees, endures and accomplishes will leave the reader breathless."

R. W. Peterson, President of National Audubon Society, writes that it is "a delightful memoir. a book that brings the reader right up close to the sights, sounds, smells and scenery of an Arizona winter, and even closer into the equally fascinating mind and heart of a remarkable woman."

Following her presentation Mrs. "Jonnie" Fisk will be pleased to autograph copies of her book, which will be on sale to benefit the Conservancy. Her appearance in this area is jointly sponsored by Friends of the Dartmouth Libraries and the Paskamansett Bird Club.

MAY DAY CELEBRATION

"May Day" will be celebrated at the Thornton W. Burgess Museum, 4 Water Street, Sandwich Village, on Saturday, May 5th, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A massive balloon release will be among the festivities as children let their helium-filled balloons fly skyward all together at 1:30 p.m. On hand to lead the countdown will be Josh Violette, weatherman for WORC - TV Channel 58. Balloons will be available at $1. each from 10 a.m. Each will be tagged with the name of its sender, and a prize will be awarded to the person whose balloon travels the farthest.

Live animal storytimes with the naturalist will be held at both 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. During the afternoon from 2:00 p.m. on, traditional May Day dances will be performed around the gaily decorated maypole. Channel 58's Francis I. Broadhurst will be the guest announcer.

Continuing Studies

EARLY REGISTRATIONS FOR SUMMER COURSES

The Division of Continuing Studies at Southeastern Maassachusetts University is accepting early registrations for enrollment in summer semester courses. There will be no registration fee charged for anyone registering through May 13.

The summer semester offers several options for enrollment in any of the graduate or undergraduate courses, non-credit courses, and other programs.

A three-week session, with classes scheduled daily Monday through Friday, will begin May 21 and extend through June 8, and a seven-week session, extending from June 20 through August 8, offers Monday and Wednesday or Tuesday and Thursday options.

Two five-week sessions have been scheduled, each with classes on Mondays through Thursdays. The first session will run May 29 through June 28 and the second from July 9 through August 9.

The Division also is offering a summer "Taste of Honey" Program of nine non-credit courses: "Drawing from Within", a weeklong workshop scheduled to start July 9; four courses through the Center for Research and Business Activity; and the Kodaly Center of America from July 7 through August 4.

and/or teacher afforded her richly varied and broad experience, with appointments at Shenandoah Conservatory of Music, Winchester, VA.; The Foxcroft School, Middleburg, VA.; the Y.W.C.A. and the Dance Co-op in Washington; and community classes at Woods Hole and Cummington, MA.

Ms. Easterly formed her own dance company, Free Associations, and toured the United States for two years, during which time she originated and premiered several of her own compositions in modern dance. A veteran choreographer of eight years, with some 80 or more pieces to her credit, ranging from short skits to 90-minute concert productions, she is currently rehearsing her local group of dancers in "Triptych", her latest creation, in preparation for a June-scheduled concert.

In her May 6th appearance in company with a coast of four performers, the collaborating sculptor and the costume designer, Ms. Easterly is offer segments of her new stage piece with verbal commentary on its form and structure, following which she will invite questions from the audience. The program is sponsored by the Friends of the Dartmouth Libraries. Additional information is available by telephone at 636-2215.

HEALTH FAIR COMMITTEE THANKS VOLUNTEERS

The Committee on Health Works '84 wishes to express their gratitude to the many people who assisted in making the recent Health Fair at the Wareham Town Hall a success. The fair which was sponsored by Tobey Hospital delivered free health screening to nearly 250 participants. Successes are brought about by people who unselfishly volunteer their time and efforts to worthy causes such as these. The committee takes this opportunity to publicly thank all those whom we are unable to contact personally.

NATURE WORKSHOPS

Parents and their pre-schoolers are invited to take part in the Children's Museum's continuing Wednesday morning workshops.

The offering May 9th at 10 a.m. is "Baby Birds". Youngsters will create a nest full of hungry birds from egg cartons, grass and sticks.

"Yeasty Beasties" is the topic on May 16th at 10 a.m. when participants will discover how yeast lives, what it eats and use their knowledge to make pretzels. The instructor for the workshops is Museum staff member Chris Laubach.

A program for older children ages 10 through 12, "Looking at Cells", will be conducted on May 19th at 1 p.m. Students will play "Cell Bingo", and explore this unit of life under a high-powered microscope. Instructors for the program are Elizabeth Alves, Paula Ferriera and Christine George, all New Bedford High School students.

Pre-registration is required for all three programs.

Contact the Children's Museum at 993-3361 for details.

SCIENCE WORKSHOPS

Pre-registration is currently underway at the Children's Museum of Dartmouth for Saturday Fun Workshops and Parent/Pre-schooler Workshops.

Youngsters age 7 and older can take part in three workshops planned for May 12: "Yeastie Beasties" at 10 a.m. investigates the strange but interesting world of yeast.

SALUTE TO SENIOR CITIZENS

The Children's Museum will sponsor a salute to senior citizens at the Museum on Tuesday, May 15th, from 2 to 4 p.m. The event which is free to seniors (age 60 and over) is in recognition of Older American's Month (May). Museum staff will present demonstrations for the group and provide refreshments. Of course, those attending will be encouraged to view and interact with the Museum's exhibits. Museum director Rene Laubach will also address the group, stressing the Museum's need for volunteers and the kinds of volunteering opportunities available to older persons and others.

Major goals of the event are to inform senior citizens of the Museum and its programs and to let seniors know how they can make important contributions in the operation of the Children's Museum.

Convenient

Even though I live downtown, I find it so much more convenient to go to Parkwood when I need medical care. The Number 10 Sassaquin bus takes me right up the Avenue, and there are none of the traffic and parking hassles of downtown. And my doctor's office is right there, too! So if I need any special tests or x-rays, they can do them right there, right away. Even if Parkwood weren't so convenient, I'd go there anyway, because the people there really seem to care about me. I wouldn't go anywhere else.
